

Compact of Free Association (COFA)
Premium Assistance Program

Did you move to Oregon from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, and Republic of Palau? You may qualify for FREE medical insurance!

HEALTH INSURANCE EVENT FOR COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION CITIZENS

Tuesday, Nov. 22, 2016

10:00 – 5:00 pm

350 Winter St NE, Salem, OR 97301

What is the COFA Premium Assistance Program?

This program provides free health insurance for adult COFA citizens living in Oregon. It pays for standard silver level health insurance plans purchased through HealthCare.gov. The medical plans cover doctor's visits, emergency care, preventive care (such as mammograms and screenings for blood pressure and diabetes) prescriptions, and much more.

Bring the following documents and information:

- Passport and I-94 card or a printout of your online I-94 record
- Social Security Number or Alien Resident Number (if you have one)
- Proof of Oregon address (driver license, ID card, utility bills, etc.)
- Employer and income information
- OHA eligibility notice (Form OHA 640F)

This event is supported by:
