Oregon Health Insurance Marketplace

Request for Grant Proposals

The Oregon Health Insurance Marketplace (Marketplace) is excited to announce a new grant opportunity for health insurance agents. The Marketplace will provide funding and support for qualified, resident insurance agents and agent organizations that provide brick-and-mortar storefronts open to the public during the upcoming open enrollment period. The goal of the program is to help educate and enroll Oregonians in Oregon's health insurance marketplace.

The Marketplace intends to award 10 – 12 Storefront grants of $10,000 each. Benefits include increased business, promotion of the grantees' businesses, access to additional materials and information, direct referrals and access to Marketplace customer service, and more. The grants will cover a five-month term, starting approximately Oct. 1, 2015 and ending approximately Feb. 29, 2016.

Agents can apply for a storefront grant by:

1. Going to <http://www.oregonhealthcare.gov/agent-resources.html>;
2. Downloading the Request for Grant Proposals (RFGP);
3. Filling out the application form included in the RFGP; and
4. Submitting their application by mail or email to the contact below by 11:59 p.m., September 18, 2015.

Please use the contact information below for any questions about this opportunity.
