

Health coverage for immigrants

Many people who have immigrated to the United States but are not citizens can get health care coverage through HealthCare.gov. HealthCare.gov is the only place where you can qualify for financial help to pay for your coverage.

You may be eligible if you have any of the following immigration statuses:

- Lawful permanent resident (LPR/Green Card holder)
- Asylee
- Refugee
- Cuban/Haitian entrant paroled into the U.S.
- Conditional entrant granted before 1980
- Battered spouse, child, and parent
- Victim of trafficking and spouse, child, sibling, or parent
- Granted withholding of deportation or withholding of removal under the immigration laws or under the Convention against Torture (CAT)
- Individual with nonimmigrant status, includes worker visas (such as H1, H-2A, H-2B), student visas, U-visa, T-visa, and other visas, and citizens of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands, and Palau
- Temporary protected status (TPS)
- Deferred enforced departure (DED)
- Deferred action status (Exception: Deferred action for childhood arrivals (DACA) is not an eligible immigration status for applying for health insurance)
- Lawful temporary resident
- Administrative order staying removal issued by the Department of Homeland Security
- Member of a federally recognized Indian tribe or American Indian born in Canada
- Resident of American Samoa

To sign up, go to HealthCare.gov or call 800-318-2596 (toll-free) during open enrollment, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15. You may be able to sign up sooner if you experience a qualifying life event, such as losing other coverage, getting married, having a child, or gaining citizenship or lawful permanent resident status. You can also find a health insurance agent or community organization that can help you enroll for free at OregonHealthCare.gov or by calling 855-268-3767 (toll-free) from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

YOUR FUTURE. TAKE CONTROL.
