

Health Insurance Marketplace

Bio for committee member Shanon Saldivar

Shanon Saldivar is the office manager at Revell Coy Insurance. Shanon started her career in the insurance industry in 2003 and has definitely found her niche with the Affordable Care Act. She implemented and currently oversees the health insurance program at RCI. Shanon is passionate about the ACA and the changes that it brought to the industry. Her support of the ACA is validated by the positive impact it has made in the lives of the residents in the Columbia River Gorge. She serves as a board member at One Community Health, the areas only Federally Qualified Health Clinic. Shanon and her husband Daniel live in The Dalles. They have two daughters that keep their personal schedules full, however, when free time presents itself they enjoy traveling locally and abroad.