Understanding health coverage

Coinsurance

The percentage of costs of a covered health care service you pay; 20 percent for an X-ray, for example.

Copayment

A fixed amount you pay for a covered health care service; $20 for a visit with the doctor, for example.

Cost sharing

Health insurance company and enrollee shares the cost of covered benefits.

Deductible

The amount you pay before the plan starts to pay for some covered services. In Oregon, many plans do not require that the enrollee pays the deductible when they have office visits, but they will pay the deductible for services such as hospital stays or surgeries. It is extremely important to remember that there are many services covered by health plans, either in full or at least in part, before meeting the deductible.

Maximum out-of-pocket (OOP)

The most you have to pay for covered services in a plan year. After you spend this amount on deductibles, copayments, and coinsurance for in-network care and services, your health plan pays 100 percent of the costs of covered benefits. Things that do not count towards the out-of-pocket maximum are:

- Your monthly premium
- Anything you spend for services your plan doesn't cover
- Out-of-network care and services

Network

A group of providers, clinics, hospitals and pharmacies who are contracted with an insurance company to provide care or services for enrollees. Find out if your preferred provider or facility is in-network by contacting your insurance company or searching their provider directory, which can be found at orhim.info/health-plans.

Premium

The amount you pay for your health insurance each month.

Preventive services

Preventive and wellness services are typically covered with no copayments or coinsurance before you meet your plan's deductible, as long as they are ordered by your doctor and you're getting the services from an in-network provider or facility. Your health insurance company can't limit sex-specific recommended preventive services based on your sex assigned at birth, gender identity, or recorded gender — for example, a transgender man who has residual breast tissue or an intact cervix getting a mammogram or pap smear.

Provider

Someone who provides health care services, such as a doctor, dentist, or therapist.
